

English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL)

The English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) program is designed to empower individuals from diverse linguistic backgrounds with the necessary skills to communicate effectively in English. This course helps students become fluent and confident in the English language enabling them to navigate social, academic, and professional environments with confidence. The program serves as a foundation for further education, career advancement, and integration into English-speaking communities.

Classes are designed to help learners from beginning levels all the way through advanced.

Students must register in advance to attend classes.

Walk-in students cannot be accepted into class and must follow the registration process.
